Hullo
Friend,

How are you these days and how is your life? For me am okay with my family members and friends. We pray for you and we and we also love you so much.

I have written this letter just to say thank you for the support you granted to me during my studies.

I have completed my course of catering and hotel management at St. Maria Goretti and i hope to get a job since i have just completed exams. Now am living with my parent as i look for a job but as soon as it get a job, i will prefer living independently. Am now mature and qualified.

Thank you for the school fees, matress etc. thank you for the support you have given to me and am so grateful for your support which has successfully helped me throughout completing my two years course in Catering and hotel management and am now a good and successful hotelier who can handle departments in the hotel industry like, Kitchen, Reception, Food and Beverage and Housekeeping. I have a plan to manage my welfare and help my family very soon.

Thank you very much for that support throughout my education. May God bless you and indeed protect you with good health and blessings to you entire family the best.

Am to remember you always.

I wish you a happy New Year.
2017.
